

For Immediate Release

Contact: Antonio Campagnoli, CRE
+ 39 02 4549 4253
antonio.campagnoli@ilpunto-re.eu

The Counselors of Real Estate® European Chapter To Host International Conference in Rome

(Chicago, Illinois USA)–March 27, 2018–The European Chapter of The Counselors of Real Estate® (CRE®), a global professional association for the most respected senior-level property advisors, will host its fifth international business and real estate conference in Rome on June 7th and 8th. Focused on “European Investment Challenges,” the event will take place at La Lanterna di Fuksas.

Antonio Campagnoli, CRE, IL PUNTO Real Estate Advisor Srl/CORFAC International, Milan, one of conference organizers and a featured speaker, said, “The program addresses urban and financial challenges throughout Europe as well as current investment opportunities. Among the topics to be covered are the impact of strong administrative change in Europe; how Greece, Italy, Spain and Portugal have coped with crisis; how the Investment climate has been impacted; present market synergy; benchmarks with Northern Europe; and best practices.”

A copy of the program schedule and registration information, including a development tour to the Vatican on June 7th and a full day of speakers and panel discussions on June 8th, can be found on the CRE website.

Speakers include Alessandra Priante from the Ministry of Heritage and Cultural Activities and Tourism (Italy); Claudio Giannotti, University of Rome LUMSA; Nicholas Chatztsolis, CRE, Managing Director, Axies S.A. (part of CBRE Affiliate Network, Greece); Philip Bacon, Director, Horwath (Spain); Zachary Schwartz, Vice President, Cerberus (UK); and Giuliano Gasparini, CRE, Senior Vice President, Hospitality and Leisure Asset Management, Aldar Properties (UAE).

The Counselors of Real Estate is an international consortium of diverse, highly skilled professionals who provide reliable advice and counsel on real property and land related matters. Membership is extended by invitation and includes principals of prominent real estate, financial, legal and accounting firms as well as recognized leaders of government and academia. The organization is characterized by its selective, highly functioning network of the leading property professionals worldwide and the thought leadership integral to providing the right answer or course of action. The real estate acumen for which Counselors of Real Estate (CREs) are known impacts properties across the globe. With so many of the world’s most pressing issues rooted in real property, The Counselors takes seriously its involvement in matters relating to transportation, infrastructure, affordable housing, the environment, economic inequality, and community revitalization. For more information, contact: The Counselors of Real Estate: +1 (312) 329-8427; info@cre.org; www.cre.org.